TRW HUI-Ā-TAU 2005

Our hui-a-tau held at the Te Rau Aroha Marae in Bluff and will run from 31 March – 3 April 2004. These hui are the only conferences of their kind for Maori working in libraries and other information organisations. They are an opportunity for Maori staff that may be isolated to meet Maori colleagues and are also a chance to share information and advice, to see new local and national Maori library developments and also to be informed on the international indigenous library scenario. Please support your Maori staff members' applications to attend.

KOHA

TRW welcomes any support from any libraries or archives no matter how big or small the support. Please direct any questions or offers of support to the TRW Treasurer. (See our contact details at the end of the column).

MEMBERSHIPS

Just a reminder folks that the 2004-2005 memberships, institutional and associate memberships are due. We value you as a member and with your membership and support we can continue to strive for the improved care and management of Māori staff, Māori materials and Māori clients in the industry.

Wananga o Waikato

Congratulations to Eddie and Hingatua Neha on the new addition to their whanau/hapu, Eruera Tutengohi Paariki Neha born 8 April, 10 pound 1 ounce (whew).
Ngaati Neha now nearly halfway to the rugby team, over halfway to the league team but have a mixed touch team with a reserve!!

A big thank you to TRW members for allowing us to host Hui-a-Tau 2005. Waikato Library staff hope you enjoyed the presentation from Charles, Ruth, Greg and Lani (as if you couldn't). We have started planning an awesome, informative, participative and fun hui and are looking forward to seeing ALL OF YOU in Kawhia Kai, Kawhia Moana, Kawhia Tangata e!!.

Te Ropu Kaimahi Maori recently hosted the monthly Te Puna Tautoko hui in the Library and treated them to a fabulous hangi lunch cooked by Eddie. Te Puna Tautoko is a university network of Maori who are involved in:

1. Administration
2. Student & Staff support
3. Student Mentoring

The Network participants include academic staff and staff from Enrolments, Academic Support, Disabilities, Scholarships Office, School Liaison, and the Library. Eddie Neha and Charles Willison represent the Library. The network is facilitated through the Office of the Pro Vice-Chancellor Maori.
The principle aim of Te Puna Tautoko is Kotahitanga and the outputs/ outcomes of Kotahitanga are:

1. Student Mentoring
 2. Student Retention
 3. Degree completion
 4. Post graduate studies
 5. Whakawhanungatanga / Student & staff support
- The hui was attended by the usual 25+ University of Waikato staff and was held in the new meeting room on Level 2 of the Library. It ran for two hours with participants continuing to share and trade their ideas and panui. We still encounter tauira e noho puku ana.
