

Name: Mā'ara Māeva

Position: Learning Specialist

Institution: Auckland War Memorial Museum

Ra'iatea, Cook Island

A Learning Specialist where he develops and delivers schools and community programs. He is a descendant of the supreme god lo-te-atua-nui-manomano-tini and is a knowledge holder in East Polynesian cultures. His parentage is of Ra'iatea and Cook Island, and is steeped in the cultural traditions and knowledge of his heritage. He holds a Master's degree of archaeology from the University of Auckland.